SHULTS' HOME RUN DEFEATS U. OF R.

Circuit Clout in Eleventh Inning Decides Close Contest—Warren Secures 15 Strike Outs

SCORE 7-6

A home run in the eleventh inning won the Rochester baseball game last Saturday and gave the Hamilton fans the final thrill of a close game. With the score at 6-6 Captain Shults knocked out a long hit to center field which he stretched into a winning home run.

Carl Warren and Bob Morris were the battery for Hamilton and formed a good combination. Warren pitched excellent ball most of the game, but weakened a trifle in some of the pinches. He secured a total of 15 strikeouts and yielded 8 hits.

Cleveland and Wallace formed the Rochester battery. Cleveland was fairly effective, but had weak support at times. He struck out 7 men and yielded 8 hits.

Rochester began the first inning with a rush and scored two runs but Hamilton tied the score in her half. For the next five innings the teams battled on even terms, each putting across a run in the sixth. The seventh inning was Rochester's and the eighth and ninth innings found Hamilton on the small end of a 5-3 score. With a splendid last-minute rally Hatch and Hunter scored the runs which tied the score.

The tenth inning again made the score a tie, each team getting one run. Hamilton tightened up in the eleventh and held Rochester scoreless. Dick Shults, the first man up, knocked out the first ball pitched for a long hit into center field. Carhart chased the ball and relayed it to second almost as soon as Shults reached third. The throw home was a trifle late and short and Shults slid home for the winning run.

SENIOR BALL TO BE BEST IN YEARS

Plans Definitely Announced Indicate Gala Event

Plans for the greatest Senior Ball in the history of the College have been completed by the committee in charge. The Ball, which will be held in the Soper Gymnasium on Friday evening, June 15, will be unique in two repsects. The music furnished by Tige Jewett's Cornell Orchestra will be superior to that of former Senior Balls, also for the first time, the Gym will be decorated in Prom-like style.

The decorations will consist of a latticed ceiling of green boughs, with panels of light inserted at frequent intervals. The lighting arrangements, which are under the direction of Bill Ogden, '26, will be quite elaborate. Indirect lighting, by means of panels of glass on both sides of the room, and spot lights will be used.

A feature of the program will be the giving of a silver vanity case to the best looking girl on the floor. Another prize may also be offered for the couple that gives the best exhibition of dancing.

Tickets are now on sale by the committee, composed of DeWitt, Willard, and Fitzgerald, and at the College Store. The committee in undertaking this program feels the need of the immediate support of all those men who are planning on going and urge that they buy their tickets as soon as possible.

Y. M. C. A. CABINET ADOPTS FALL PROGRAM

Policies to Continue Much the Same as Before with a Wider Field of Activity

The administration of the Y. M. C. A. for the year 1923-24 is going to follow a policy very similar to that of the present administration. The first thing that will be done in the fall will be the card-indexing of the incoming freshmen, a plan that was employed with much success in the fall of 1922. This canvass will ascertain what the various freshmen are interested in, and besides being of value to the Y. M. C. A., will furnish valuable information for the college in general. Soon after college opens, the usual freshman reception will be held in the Hall of Commons. The membership campaign will be conducted on the Fourfold Purpose basis. This plan of recruiting membership is being generally adopted all over the country. It is planned to carry on meetings under three auspices: Bible Study and Mission Study, Popular Talks, and Public Forums. The vicinity will be largely in the hands of the M. M. Club. It is hoped that a systematic study of missions may be developed next year. The Y. M. C. A. movies will be continued next year under the capable and efficient leadership of John Q. Howe, '24, and a number of amusing and entertaining pictures will be shown. There will also be an attempt to revive the old Y. M. C. A. shows.

To aid him in successfully carrying out this policy, the president of the Y. M. C. A., Paul S. Olver, '24, has, as vice-president, Leslie E. Moore, '24, as treasurer, Philip G. Scott, '25,

TRACK TEAM WINDS UP SEASON WITH DECISIVE VICTORY OVER UNION

Hamilton Defeats Ancient Rival 69 1-4 to 56 3-4—Alison Breaks Two Records—Thompson Makes Brilliant Showing in Last Appearence on the Hill—Art Warren Sets New Javelin Record.

On last Saturday with ideal weather, the Hamilton track team, in the last meet of the year, humbled the Garnet in a stirring contest on Steuben Field. Alec Alison and Tommy Thompson both did stellar work for the Buff and Blue. Alec doing the hundred in the fast time of 9 9-10, and the 220 in 22' flat, established two new college records, besides taking first in the 440 and third in the broad jump. Tommy took first in the mile and half mile, and second in the two mile, allowing Yates to come in first. Oram of Union also proved a sensation. He won both hurdles, and set a new Union record in the 120 high hurdles. Art Warren also distinguished himself in the last meet by breaking his own javelin record with the new distance of 150 ft., 3 in.

Hamilton showed its superiority in the track events. One of the prettiest races of the day was the 440, in which Alec took first. Thomas, '25, showed up remarkably well in this event and with another year's practice ought to prove a valuable asset to the team.

In the field events the contest was about even. McGiffin, '24, made two firsts, in the shot put and the discus. The high jump was closely contested and ended at 5 ft. 6 in. with Ireland tied with three Union men for first place. The points were divided with each man receiving 2 1-4 points. Alec Alison placed third in the broad jump on his first attempt in the event.

Captain Oram of Union scored 18 points, winning both the hurdles, placing second in the 100 and 440, and taking second place in the broad jump.

CHI PSI CONVENTION MEETS HERE IN JUNE

Local Chapter to Act as Host to the Other Chapters for the Eighty-Second Annual Affair

Chi Psi will hold its eighty-second annual convention at Hamilton on June 21, 22, and 23. A similar one was held on the Hill in 1870, and the last gathering was at Minneapolis. Mr. Stanley E. Gilbert, '07, of Utica will preside at the meetings.

Nearly every member of the neighboring chapters at Union College and Cornell University is expected. Besides these, there will be many of the alumni, and at least one delegate from each of the chapters which are at Union, Williams, Middlebury, Wesleyan, Bowdoin, Michigan, Amherst, Cornell, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Rutgers, Stevents, Georgia, Lehigh, Stanford, California, Chicago, Illinois, Colorado, Oregon, and Washington.

Meals will be served in Commons, except for the banquet, which will be at the Hotel Utica. The Executive Council will have entire use of the Lodge, the others, which are expected to number about 150, will room in Carnegie and South. The College has granted permission for the use of the golf course and the tennis courts.

The first meetings will begin on Thursday, June 21, in the Library. A fraternity flag, expansion, finances and methods for handling freshmen will probably be among the subjects discussed. The meeting will be continued in the afternoon. In the evening there will be some kind of an entertainment, although the details have not been arranged. On Friday there will be meetings all day, and in the evening from ten o'clock to three, a dance will be given at the Lodge. About thirty guests will be brought from Utica in automobiles. On Saturday, meetings will continue all day and the program will officially close with the banquet at Hotel Utica. John W. G. Ogilvie, '24, has charge of the preparations for the convention. He is also the delegate from the local chapter, with Paul S. Olver, '24, as alternate.

ALISON HEADS TRACK TEAM

At a meeting of the track team held yesterday noon after lunch, Alexander Alison III '24, was elected to the captaincy of next year's track team. The honor comes as the result of stellar work, and augurs well for the success of next year's team.

1923 Commencement.

Another year has rolled around, and once again the college is preparing for the annual Commencement exercises and functions. If present signs are any indication, then the Commencement this June ought to be one long to be remembered.

Commencement time is the one period of the year that most college graduates set aside for renewing old friendships and acquaintances. It is the logical time for class reunions, and the few days spent around this old campus once more bring back to all the old joys of undergraduate life. It has been said that each year the same number of alumni always return for the festivities, and that the men who attend are the same year in and year out. This is not only true of Hamilton, but of other colleges as well. There are a hundred and one excuses why alumni find it unable to be present at the June get-together, and in many cases they are legitimate.

Hamilton is entering upon a new era in its glorious history. Each year sees an increase in the undergraduate body, and the college is keeping pace with its growth. A wise and far-seeing Board of Trustees are doing all in their power to make Hamilton one of the finest, if not the finest, small college in the country. Today, it is indeed safe to say that Hamilton can be approached only by a very select few in the college world, not only in point of equipment, but also as to scholarship and manhood.

You men who have been out of college some years, mark down in your engagement book that you are coming up to the 111th Commencement of your Alma Mater. You will hardly recognize the place. A wonderful new concrete road has taken the place of the terrible dirt monstrosity of your undergraduate days. A new Athletic Building, along with nine new tennis courts and a splendid six-hole golf course have been added to the physical department. You will see new faculty houses under construction, new science buildings, and new fraternity houses. If you care to peruse the curricular work, you will find many additions and improvements.

To sum up. Alumni, you who seldom find the time to come back to your old college home, set aside the week-end of June fifteenth, and come back to college awhile. You owe it to yourself and your Alma Mater. Let us have the 111th Commencement the best that the old Buff and Blue has ever seen!

Upperclassmen! Attention!

In this issue of Life there appears an account of the new rules governing the conduct of Freshmen. It is the duty of every man in the three upper classes next year to see that these rules are enforced. They are not too severe, and they are calculated to keep the new men in their proper place.

With the cooperation of the three upper classes in enforcing these rules, much can be accomplished in uniting the incoming class, and real discipline will thus be obtained.

New Material for Hamilton.

Now is the time of the year to look ahead to the new material that will be coming in to make up the undergraduate body. The last two or three athletic seasons that Hamilton has experienced have shown that the college is lacking in real athletic ability. This is not meant to convey the meaning that credit should not be due to the athletic teams that Hamilton has produced . Indeed much worthy praise is due to those in charge of Hamilton sports and to those men that have taken part in the contests.

No one who has the real interests of the college in mind wants to see Hamilton become a distinctly athletic college. What every one wants to see is the ability to produce teams that will hold up the college's reputation among colleges of its own class. In order to do this, the coaches must have men with some previous experience in prep or high school. Men of this type can easily be secured if a little effort can be put forth on the part of men out of college. Hamilton has the equipment, and all that is needed to make the college complete is a few more men with athletic experience.

HAMILTON REPRESENTED AT Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION

The Intercollegiate Young Men's Christian Association Conference was held at Auburn Seminary recently. Delegates from all colleges in the state except those near New York City, attended the conference. Prominent national and international officials of the Y. M. C. A. were present. Special attention was given to successful methods of membership, finance, and organization.

The Hamilton College Y. M. C. A. sent as its delegates Leslie E. Moore, '24, and Philip G. Scott, '25. Moore was elected to a committee of four men which is to act as the regular state council until the regular council is elected at the Silver Bay Conference. In this capacity, Moore will have charge of the affairs of all the smaller colleges in this vicinity.

The conference urged Hamilton to send delegates to the Silver Bay Conference, to be held June 14-22. It is expected that five men will attend.

EVEN BREAK FOR BALL TEAM ON TRIP

Easily Trims U. of R.—Meet Hard Opponent in Cornell—Gifford and Warren Do Well

The Buff and Blue nine got an even break on its trip last week, chalking up a decisive victory over Rochester on Tuesday by 5 to 1, and losing to Cornell on Wednesday by 6 to 1. The first game was almost flawless, so far as Hamilton was concerned. Gifford pitched fine ball, allowing but three scattered hits, and was at all times master of the situation. The team gave him perfect support, playing an errorless game in the field.

Hamilton began its attack in the second inning, when hits by Shults, Morris, and Mulchy brought in two runs. Loose pitching by Cleveland allowed two more tallies in the next frame, but from then on the Yellow moundsman steadied down and kept his opponents' hits well scattered. The Buff and Blue scored again in the eighth, on a trio of hits by A. Hunter, Gifford and Courteau.

CORNELL TRIMS HAMILTON

Journeying to Ithaca on Wednesday, the Buff and Blue found its match in the strong Cornell team, and wsa defeated 6-1 in a well-fought game. Brown's pitching remained a puzzle to the Hamilton batters all through the game, and they were able to connect for only three safe hits. A shutout was averted in the eighth inning, when timely errors on the part of the Red infielders gave their opponents their lone tally.

Warren pitched creditable ball, yielding nine hits, but Coach Carney's batsmen bunched them opportunely, and were aided by four misplays on the part of the Buff and Blue.

Corteau was the star for Hamilton, making a double and a single out of three trips to the plate, and having two stolen bases to his credit.

INTERFRATERNITY GOLF TOURNAMENT ALMOST COMPLETED

The preliminaries of the interfraternity golf contest have been played, and the Chi Psi's have played their semi-final match with the Sigs. The results of the preliminary matches brought the Chi Psis, the Sigs, the Emersonians, and the Alpha Delts to the semi-finals. The only matches yet remaining to be played are those between E. L. S. and the Alpha Delts, and the finals between the Chi Psi's and the winner of the other semi-final match. The management requests that these matches be played as soon as possible in order that the winner may be awarded the cup at the college meeting in Commons on Friday night.

The match between the Chi Psi's and the Sigs was well played. Frederick D. Weld, '23, made low score in this match, his score being 95 for the eighteen holes. Philip Doane, '23, made next low score, with 101.

In the preliminaries fine scores were turned in by Dick Fowler, Ed Stuart and Joe Mulchy of the Seniors, Don Jones, Jack Holley, and George Marks of the Juniors, Bill Johnson of the Sophs, and Joe Squier, Hank Holley, and Bill Breazeau of the Frosh.

NEW FRESHMAN RULES TO BE ADOPTED

Executive Council Passes New Regulations Governing Freshman Conduct—To Go Into Effect Next Fall

On last Monday morning the Upperclassman Council passed a list of freshman rules which will be effective beginning with the class of 1927. Many of these rules have been in force before this time, but they have never before been written down in complete form. These rules will be printed in the freshman bible which will be published soon, and so they will be in the hands of the incoming class as soon as they enter college.

The rules follow:

1. Freshmen must not wear red in any form.
2. Freshmen must wear the regulation green cap on the campus and within the radius of Clinton, from the opening of college until the Easter recess, excepting on Sundays. Green toques may not be worn until after November first.
3. With the exception of corn cob pipes, freshmen must not smoke on the campus, athletic field, or in any of the college buildings on the campus. This includes the Sage Building and Commons Hall, but excludes the dormitory rooms.
4. Freshmen must keep strictly to the regular paths of the campus, unless accompanied by upperclassmen.
5. Freshmen must not occupy seats at any athletic contest until after accommodations have been made for seniors, juniors, and sophomores, and for outside guests.
6. Freshmen must yield precedence to upperclassmen and sophomores on the campus and in trolley cars, upon entering and leaving all buildings, and upon the tennis courts and golf course.
7. Freshmen must not wear preparatory school insignia upon caps, jerseys or sweaters.
8. Freshmen who wear overshoes or galoshes must have all buckles fastened at all times on the campus and within the radius of Clinton.
9. On the evenings of the regularly scheduled House Parties and the first and third nights of the annual Junior Prom, freshmen from one fraternity house shall not pay visits to other fraternity houses, even if accompanied or invited by upperclassmen.
10. Freshmen must not fail to be the first to say "Hello" to the upperclassmen and sophomores when they meet on the campus.
11. Freshmen must attend cheering practice when called by the cheerleaders.
12. Freshmen must have learned all the words of "Carissima" within one week after the opening of college, and all the words of "Fair Hamilton," "Bright Hamilton," "We Come to Hang Our Banners," and "Thy Sons Will Ne'er Forget Thee" within one month after the opening of college.

Alumni News

(Edited by Prof. W. H. Squires, '88)

—Rev. Charles H. Dayton, '14, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Bergen, N. Y., lately took a prominent part in the installation of the new pastor of the Stonechurch Presbyterian Church in the same county. The Bergen Church once had the services of Ex-President Stryker, '72, while he was a student in Auburn Theological Seminary.

—Rev. Emory L. Evans, '90, after seven years of faithful service in the Presbyterian Church at Vernon, N. Y., has accepted a call to the Presbyterian Church at Sennet, and will begin his duties there on May 27th. The Vernon Church has had Hamilton men as pastors for the last thirty years: Petersen, '95, Humeston, '99, Cole, '88, and Evans, '90.

—Principal Walter M. Pratt, '08, of Fort Plain, N. Y., has been elected Principal of the High School at Waterloo. After leaving college Pratt studied law and practised his profession in Utica. The call to teaching was too strong to resist, so he accepted a position at Hyde Park, went to Richfield Springs, then to Fort Plain, and in September will take the position vacated by the late Prin. D. H. H. Naylor, '94.

—Professor John P. Silvernail, '74, for thirty-two years head of the department of sacred oratory of Rochester Theological Seminary, has just retired from the faculty of that institution. Those of us who have attended the banquets of the Rochester Hamilton Alumni remember Professor Silvernail as a most charming story-teller, a fine example of the art of speech he imparted to others, and a loyal alumnus of the College. He represents the old type of Hamilton Oratory at its best and is the very impersonation of it. Rochester Theological Seminary is indebted to Hamilton not only for a third of a century of splendid service by Professor Silvernail, but for Professor Asahel Clark Kendrick, '31, the inimitable Greek teacher and scholar.

—Superintendent J. Howard Edgerton, '06, of the schools of Westfield, N. Y., has been engaged for another year with high appreciation of the work he has done there since January first of this year expressed in the form of greatly increased salary. Dr. Edgerton left the Presidency of Ogden College, Bowling Green, Ky., to assume charge of the Westfield schools after the resignation of Professor Preston K. Pattison, '77, who had been Principal of the High School and Superintendent of Schools for a quarter of a century. Dr. Edgerton has assumed an important place not only in the schools but in the life of the community. During the winter he has conducted a Bible Study class in the Presbyterian Church during the and has had present at these services hour preceding the morning services an average of over a hundred men down to date. Rev. Charles B. Thompson, '13, is pastor of the church.

—Robert Maxwell Scoon, '07, a member of Chi Psi and Phi Beta Kappa, has been advanced from Associate Professor to full Professor at Princeton.

—Paul Chatham Squires, '17, has been apointed Assistant in the Department of Psychology at Princeton for the remainder of the year. He is also doing graduate work in philosophy. Last year Mr. Squires was Assistant Professor at Hamilton.

—Robert K. Wicks, D.D., '04, who recently accepted a call to the North Presbyterian Church in Rochester, as a result of pressure brought to bear by his present congregation at the Second Congregational Church in Holyoke, Mass., will remain in Holyoke. It is reported, that due to his splendid work there, his resignation was not accepted. A recent report from Rochester stated that he would not accept the pulpit there, thus confirming the report from Holyoke.

—Arthur Edwin Bullard, '03, reports in a late issue of Collier's Weekly, an interview with Owen D. Young, chairman of the Board of the General Electric Company, sometime Chairman of the conference on unemployment called by President Harding, in which an answer is given to the question: "Will the present prosperity last?" Bullard has been a voluminous writer on many subjects. His studies in Russia, his description of the slum life of the city, his novel, "A Man's World," his sociological writings all show him a fearless and unsparing inestigator, and a fascinating writer. He has published some of his work under the name of "Albert Edwards."

—Rev. Frank W. Weston, D.D., '00, pastor of the Brighton Presbyterian Church, gave the principal address at the memorial service held in Convention Hall, Rochester, May 27, for the Rochester Soldiers and Sailors who have died during the past year. The services were conducted under the auspices of the Memorial and Executive Committee of Rochester. Dr. Weston is one of the best known orators of Western New York. His services in this capacity are constantly sought by organizations of every kind—and his response is always prompt and generous.

—Professor Edward S. Babcock, '96, is just closing his seventh year as Principal of the Utica Free Academy. During these years there has been an increasingly larger number of the graduates entering the colleges for higher education. The State Scholarships awarded to the college entrants form Oneida County have been captured by the Free Academy graduates in significant numbers. The course of study and the rules for graduation have been greatly improved. This has been a remarkable year in the Academy for the work accomplished by the more than seventy-five teachers of that institution under the leadership of Professor Babcock. The school's record in the State examinations has been conspicuously high, emphasizing the fact that 99.3 per cent of all the examination papers sent to the Regent's Office at Albany in January of this year were accepted. Ninety-eight per cent of these papers received the same rating at Albany as given by the teachers of the Academy. This year's graduating class numbers about 200, and fully 100 of these will enter this coming fall higher institutions of learning. The recommendations by which Professor Babcock was made Principal of Utica Free Academy have been amply verified. This Commencement Babcock closes a four year term of service on the Board of Trustees of the College as Alumni Trustee.

—Superintendent H. H. Crumb, '05, of the Union-Endicott Schools, is just completing his tenth year in this position. The school system has grown in this thriving community by leaps and bounds. Five building projects have been carried through to successful conclusion and another extensive building is under way. Registration in the schools has grown from 800 to 3500, excluding the Continuation and the Evening Schools. At present 116 teachers are employed, 111 of whom have been selected by the Superintendent. Endicott is the home of the great Endicott-Johnson shoe factories and is known in all parts of the country through the chain stores of this Company.

DRAMA CLASS PLAYS MAKE BIG HIT

Prof. Fancher's Class Presents Difficult Program with Much Art—Little Theater Crowded

The sixth performance of the class in Dramatic Interpretation was given last Monday evening in the Little Theater. The small auditorium was completely filled with invited guests from the College and Utica. The two plays were given under the direction of Prof. Paul A. Fancher, and great credit is due to him for the excellent performance.

A very excellent criticism of the evening's productions was written by a senior, from which we quote in part:

"I had never supposed that I would see Lord Dunsany's "The Queen's Enemies" actually performed on any stage, much less by amateurs in an undergraduate production. Add to this a lively and brilliant presentation in sound, idiomatic English of Moliere's "Le Medecin Malgre Lui" under the same circumstances, and one's delight can hardly be measured.

"The Queen's Enemies" is typical Dunsany farce. In an underground temple in Egypt, of the Sixth Dynasty, we behold the tragically effectual realization of a queen's plot to destroy her political enemies. The situation is simple. With utmost guile this lovely Egyptian lady invites her royal guests from neighboring kingdoms, allays their natural fears, and spreads a lavish feast for them in this out-of-the-way and seemingly innocent spot. Suddenly the queen rises and leaves them—to pray to a very secret god, secret like his deeds. And now, swiftly and inevitably, the fatal disaster sweeps down upon the helpless princes.....A green torrent rushes into the temple, rising and rising, constantly finding its own level, hissing out candles and torches, choking the maddened, screaming, helpless wretches in the temple room, until the horrid din has ceased and the throbbing water has stopped, just touching the end of the Queen's dress .....'Yes, I shall sleep sweetly tonight.'

"This tense, almost overpowering climatic scene was done most effectually last Monday night. By very ingenious scenic and lighting effects, the illusion of water was successfully created, and by constructing a short flight of steps just outside the proscenium arch, the effect of a double stage setting was maintained.

"With the Moliere, played according to the eighteenth century English translation of Henry Fielding, the emphasis was removed from emotion to quick, intellectual, sparkling give and take. The joyous, scintillating, rollicking boisterousness of a Moliere comedy was triumphantly displayed here. The slender thread of plot, of the young man compelled to play the doctor, and doing it most artfully, to the final satisfaction of all concerned, runs easily and delightfully through the shifting, sprightly scenes. Here we find all the stock stage people of Moliere—the forward hussy who goads her husband to beating her and will not have it otherwise; the lovely, luscious heroine with her customary love-stricken companion who finally wins her in spite of parental opposition; the parent himself, the usual eighteenth-century squire, great, gruff, pompous man that he is; the young courtiers who add a light and welcome touch to the scenes; even the

"It is utterly agreeable to witness bold and cocksure maid is manifest here. These parts were played with such a performance as the one of Monday night's, with lines well-articulated and intelligently delivered and gesticulated, and with a satisfactory accompaniment of appropriate stage settings."

The casts were as follows:

"The Queen's Enemies": The Queen, W. B. Baer; Akazarpses, G. B. Snyder; Prince Rhadamandaspes, T. J. Evans; Prince Zophernes, J. L. Albertson; The Priest of Horus, L. E. Moore; The King of Four Countries, R. G. Raitt; The Twin Dukes of Ethopia, W. G. Lewi and R. C. Wood; Tharni, J. M. Holley; Tharrabas, W. I. Steele; Harles, F. E. Brush; Slaves, L. D. Bates, N. E. McHargue, P. H. Dowdell, N. H. McGiffin, J. T. Mulchy, E. Lanrowitz, C. Shenier.

"The Mock Doctor": Sir Jasper, F. E. Brush; Leander, R. C. Wood; Gregory, L. E. Moore; Squire Robert, N. H. McGiffin; James, L. D. Bates; Harry, W. G. Lewi; Davy, N. E. McHargue; Hellebor, J. L. Albertson; Dorcas, W. B. Baer; Charlotte, G. B, Snyder; Maid. W. I. Steele.

TENNIS TEAM BREAKS EVEN WITH GARNET

For the third time this season the Hamilton tennis team played a tie match. On Saturday the Buff and Blue defeated Union in three of the singles matches, but lost both doubles.

Rice, Union's most brilliant player, who has been defeated only four times, easily won two sets from Captain Fitzgerald 6-1 and 6-2. Hamilton won the rest of the singles. Price, who has not lost a singles match this year, defeated Bautham 8-6 and 6-1. Ogilvie won from Pattner quite easily 6-3 and 6-2, and Bradley defeated Ottman 6-3 and 7-5.

With the score at 3-1, Union rallied, winning both doubles. Fitzgerald and Bradley lost to Bautham and Rice 6-3 and 6-2, while Price and Ogilvie were defeated by Ottman and Plattner 6-2 and 6-4.
